MBI opens its first office in Bucharest after a transaction mediated by BNP Paribas Real Estate

MBI fully rented the ground floor of Dr. Felix 87 Office Building to open their first office in Bucharest. Both parties of the 300 sq m transaction were advised by BNP Paribas Real Estate.

“Location, the classic drive for client’s choice in real estate transactions proved decisive in our client’s decision as well, but nonetheless the budget and quality of the building fully met the requirements for the flag office of MBI in Bucharest.” - said Irina Andrei, Senior Office Negotiator within BNP Paribas Real Estate.

MBI is a full service financial broker present in 10 countries in the Central and East Europe offering financial services to individuals and independent business people in the financial field.

Located in Piata Victoriei, Dr. Felix 87 Office Building has a total surface of 2,600 sq m distributed on 6 floors being perfectly suited to companies looking for a top location, quality and affordable costs.

The leasing contract was signed for a period of 3 years.
